Awards, Fellowships, Grants & Residencies:

2012 Roy E. Larsen Award for Excellence in Teaching: this is the highest award given by the University of Hartford marking a career-long devotion to teaching, learning and scholarship.

- CAMAC: art_science_technology - Centre D'Art, Marney Art Centre, Marney sur Seine, France, invited for a 1 month residency at CAMAC for September 2012. This residency is funded by a grant from the Fondation Ténnot, a Faculty Development Grant from the Hartt School, and a Vincent B. Coffin Grant, from the University of Hartford.
- Yale Library Fellowship sponsored by the Mortensen Library Board of Visitors, University of Hartford.
- Return to Walden, August 2010, Passy, France, residency - selected as part of an international roster of ten artists, with an exhibition that followed at Gallery TPTP, Paris. This project is experimental, exploring the human relationship to the natural world. In particular it focuses on a return to nature, and transcendently, on a return to self as depicted in Henry David Thoreau's Walden; or, Life in the Woods.
- Simsbury Friends for Music Grant to fund workshops with the Henry James Middle School Composition Club during spring 2010.
- Parents Association Grant (U of H) in collaboration with Tracey Rudnick, head, Allen Library, to pilot an updated digital audio reserve service during the spring 2011 semester. Grant received spring 2010
- American Composers Forum Encore Grant with pianist Matthew McCright, MN. The program brings repeat performances of recent works to new audiences beyond the composers home state.
- Innovation in Teaching and Learning Award for 2009, from the University of Hartford, for the collaborative creation and ongoing development of the New Media Collaborative (NMC) along with Gene Gort (HAS)
- The Artists' Enclave at I-Park, residency fellowship – 06.17 - 07.14.09
- Educational Technology Grant from the Office of the Provost, University of Hartford for summer 2008.
This ongoing project focuses on increasing my level of expertise in the use of Final Cut Pro and Adobe's Creative Suite 3 (Acrobat Pro, Dreamweaver, Photoshop, InDesign, Flash and Illustrator).
- The MacDowell Colony, collaborative residency fellowship with Gene Gort: May-June 2006
- Faculty Development Grant from the Hartt School to fund computer hardware for Studio D – fall 2005
- Continental Harmony Encore grant to compose Reliquary of Labor, a multi-media work incorporating e-cello, percussion duo, computer-based music, video, podcasting and electronic technologies together in a reflection of the community. Co-sponsored by the New Britain Museum of American Art, performed in collaboration with media artist Gene Gort, e-cellist Jeffrey Krieger and the Quey Percussion Duo.
- Continental Harmony Encore is a leadership initiative of the American Composers Forum and the National Endowment for the Arts, with additional funding provided by the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, the Rockefeller Foundation, and Marshall Field's Project Imagine with support from the Target Foundation – summer 2005.
- Summer Stipend from the University of Hartford to help defray costs associated with copying parts for my piano trio: Memos to Mr. Palomar – summer 2005
- Connecticut Commission on Culture and Tourism, Artist Fellowship Grant: 2004-2005
This fellowship supported the completion of my piano trio entitled: Memos to Mr. Palomar
- Faculty Development Grant from the Hartt School to fund computer hardware and software – spring 2005
- Edward C. and Ann T. Roberts Foundation Creation of New Work grant in collaboration with media artist Gene Gort, e-cellist Jeffrey Krieger and the New Britain Museum of American Art, to explore the initial stages of a new work to celebrate the fall 2006 opening of the new museum and performance space.
- Technology Innovation Program (TIP) Grant from the Faculty Center for Learning Development (FCLD) for equipment and training to enable production, delivery and maintenance of podcast materials – fall 2004
- The Artists' Enclave at I-Park, residency fellowship – 09.03.04 - 09.30.04
